The American Heart Association's newest journal, Heart Disease and Stroke, has been created to address the needs of primary care physicians and practitioners who deal with cardiovascular, cerebrovascular, and peripheral vascular disorders.

For the latest in practical, day-to-day information on patient care, refer to Heart Disease and Stroke's featured areas:

- Initial examination
- Diagnostic procedures
- Medical treatment
- Surgical treatment
- Prevention
- Reviews
- Editorial
- Letters to the Editor

Finally, a heart journal designed specifically with you in mind.

J. Willis Hurst, MD, editor

The American Heart Association is particularly pleased to have J. Willis Hurst, MD, as editor of Heart Disease and Stroke. Dr. Hurst's distinguished career includes positions at Massachusetts General Hospital, the Bethesda Naval Hospital, and Emory University School of Medicine, Hospital and Clinic, where he is now with the Department of Medicine (Cardiology). He may be better known as editor-in-chief of the classic volume The Heart and as cardiologist to Lyndon B. Johnson, 36th president of the United States.
